INTRODUCTION

The structure and hierarchical order of the USSR Ministry of Defense and its subordinate organizations, provided in this directory, is based on: 1) the grammatical structure of the position titles listed for Soviet officers in USSR, Russian language media sources, unless otherwise indicated; and 2) the chart "The Structure of the USSR Armed Forces" published in IZVESTIYA in Russian on 22 February 1990 in the First Edition on page 1. Unless an individual or organization is explicitly referred to as being either superior or subordinate to a given organization, he or it is not listed as such.

Every effort is made to remain faithful to the original Soviet usage. Thus where errors have crept into English usage, as in the translation of "Raketnyye Voyska Strategicheskogo Naznacheniya" as "Strategic Rocket Forces", the name of this branch is properly translated as the "Strategic Missile Troops".

Usage of the term Voyska is sufficiently precise in the Soviet Armed Forces that General Ivanov made the following comment: "We are not troops, we are units. There is a basic difference in the names. Troops are armed with concrete weapon systems and their purpose is to accomplish combat assignments. But units is the name for the groups that facilitate that task." (Ivanov, V.L., Col-Gen, IZVESTIYA 12 Dec 90 Union Ed p 6.)

The Directory is organized on the basis of "administrative" rather than "operational" subordination. For example, troops of a military district are administratively subordinate to that district. However, if the same troops are deployed for operational purposes they would come under the "operational subordination" of the "Main Sector Command" [Glavnoe Komandovaniye voysk naravleniya]..

The Directory does not provide a complete listing of all personnel or organizations in the Ministry's structure.

The next higher organization in a given hierarchy is listed to the right of the organization name, and is placed in square brackets, i.e. [...].

In order to preserve the integrity of the spelling of names, the Russian soft sign is indicated by the use of an apostrophe. The Russian hard sign is indicated by the use of double quotation marks.

Honors and awards have been excluded from both individual and organizational titles.

Capitalization is adjusted to standard English style.

Whereever possible, each entry provides a source and date in which the officer was FIRST NOTED in a given position, and the MOST RECENT source and date mentioning the officer. Where a date precedes a source, as in: "(Noted 27 Jul 90 in KVS 15/90 pp 46-62.)", the date is that on which the journal was signed to press.

This is a U.S. Government publication. Its contents in no way represent the policies, views, or attitudes of the U.S. Government. Users of this publication may cite FBIS or JPRS provided they do so in a manner clearly identifying them as the secondary source.

Foreign Broadcast Information Service (FBIS) and Joint Publications Research Service (JPRS) publications contain political, military, economic, environmental, and sociological news, commentary, and other information, as well as scientific and technical data and reports. All information has been obtained from foreign radio and television broadcasts, news agency transmissions, newspapers, books, and periodicals. Items generally are processed from the first or best available sources. It should not be inferred that they have been disseminated only in the medium, in the language, or to the area indicated. Items from foreign language sources are translated; those from English-language sources are transcribed. Except for excluding certain diacritics, FBIS renders personal and place-names in accordance with the romanization systems approved for U.S. Government publications by the U.S. Board of Geographic Names.

Headlines, editorial reports, and material enclosed in brackets [] are supplied by FBIS/JPRS. Processing indicators such as [Text] or [Excerpts] in the first line of each item indicate how the information was processed from the original. Unfamiliar names rendered phonetically are enclosed in parentheses. Words or names preceded by a question mark and enclosed in parentheses were not clear from the original source but have been supplied as appropriate to the context. Other unattributed parenthetical notes within the body of an item originate with the source. Times within items are as given by the source. Passages in boldface or italics are as published.
